

come to pegasus@ a venue near you!

Pegasus Theatre will soon be finished, and we will be welcoming everyone when they visit us in September. In the meantime you can see our shows around the city as part of the Dancin' Oxford 2010 festival and Oxford Youth Theatre productions.

We look forward to seeing old friends and making new ones all over Oxford. Come and meet us at:

Museum of Oxford
(12 December 2009 – 3 April 2010)

Theatre at Headington
(20 February 2010)

Oxford School
(26/27 February 2010; 26/27 March 2010)

news

A commitment from
The Children's Plan
Department for Children, Schools and Families

join in

Pegasus has started a new programme of volunteering, funded by V Global Charities, for local young people between 16 and 25 years. This is an opportunity for training, work experience and learning on the job at Pegasus up to the end of April 2010. Volunteers will be able to work in most departments in the organisation (programming, fundraising, marketing and governance). To take part, please contact Yolanda Pulido Ignacio on 01865 792209 or email recruitment@pegasustheatre.org.uk

We also offer workshops and other activities at schools and in your community. To find out more contact Yasmin Sidhwa on 01865 792209 or email yasmin.sidhwa@pegasustheatre.org.uk.

the new pegasus

It won't be long before Pegasus is ready for fitting out! Throughout the spring season, the internal finishes are being completed – wiring, plumbing and so on – ready for us to move in furniture and equipment. The new Pegasus will comfortably exceed minimum requirements for sustainability with our specially installed systems. We hope to be generating our own electricity – with some to spare.

As all the building work is now internal, visitors to the site won't see very much but we will be introducing the new internal PegaCam in January.

Thanks to everyone who contributed to our building campaign – go online and see the fruits of your support!

create for change

At the beginning of the year we set a target of £200,000 towards a programme of new projects and activities (including writing and music for the stage plus programmes of work outside the venue) at Pegasus in time for our re-opening in autumn 2010.

We are delighted to say we have nearly reached the half way point and would like to thank everyone who has contributed so far. There are still plenty of opportunities to get involved.

To find out more contact Dominique Cadiou on 01865 792209, email dominique.cadiou@pegasustheatre.org.uk or visit the website www.pegasustheatre.org.uk for more information.

Taking Flight

A history of Pegasus Theatre

An exhibition created by Oxford Youth Theatre Production Company

12 December 2009 – 3 April 2010 Opening hours Tuesday to Saturday 10am to 5pm

Free entry

A unique Oxford history pops up at the Museum of Oxford researched, designed, produced and curated by young people from the Oxford Youth Theatre Production Company.

During the run of the exhibition the OYT Dance Company will present Walking On Eggshells, a performance that looks at the effects of family separation, on 6 February. This will be one of the few opportunities to see the company in action before they go on international tours in the summer of 2010.

Walking on Eggshells

6 February 2010 2.30pm

Oxford Youth Theatre Dance Company

Free entry

Walking on Eggshells takes a look at family separation from the viewpoint of a child. A series of choreographed scenes, developed through work with Oxford Family Mediation and young people themselves, shows the feelings and the resolution that a young person can experience. An expressive piece that shows the inner state through movement and emotion.

Grand Reunion 3

30 January 2010 5.30pm

Free entry

This special event - now in its 3rd year - is a chance for Oxford Youth Theatre members past and present to gather, share stories and have fun! For the last time this reunion will take place outside Pegasus Theatre and to celebrate all that Oxford Youth Theatre have achieved, it has been planned to coincide with the exhibition of their history of nearly 50 years!

Visit the Taking Flight show at the Museum of Oxford and join your friends from the 1960s, 70s, 80s, 90s and 00s for an exciting evening.

A Dancin' Oxford Festival production [logo]

Tickets £8 full, £6 concession, £4 U18
 £1 off for Dancin' Oxford pass holders

Tavaziva Dance returns to the Dancin' Oxford Festival with seven high-octane dancers in a fierce new show entitled Wild Dog.

The performance captures the beauty and elegance of one of Africa's most endangered species: delving into its hidden life and exploring its expressive movement. The dancers pulsate and vibrate against the mind-blowing soundtrack arranged by the Zimbabwean-born award-winning choreographer, composer and founder of the company, Bawren Tavaziva.

Oxford Youth Theatre Project Registration Evening

28 January 2010 7pm – 8pm

There are seven performance projects taking place around the city for young people aged 6 years old and upwards in dance, drama and technical theatre. Participants will be working towards a performance platform in July 2010 where all the groups will share the stage.

Anyone wishing to take part in the summer 2010 performance project should attend the Project Registration Evening. This is your chance to meet the tutors, find out more about each project and get details of rehearsal schedules for the term.

Please register your intention to come with Emily Winfield by telephone (01865 792209) or email (emily.winfield@pegasustheatre.org.uk)
