Last performances on the road...

The end of the building work is in sight and a copper clad icon is emerging from behind the scaffolding on Magdalen Road! Here at Pegasus we're preparing for our LAST performances on the road before we get the building ready for re-opening in September. The OYT companies have been working on performances for Oxfordshire's Seasons of Science and will be presenting Fourth Dimension to audiences at Oxford School, on Friday 26th & Saturday 27th March. Click here to find out more.

At the same time the OYT Company members of last year have been adapting directing and rehearsing a piece inspired by The Brimstone Journals by Ron Koertge. Their performance is part of a double bill, Sole Trader, with Platypus Theatre who has also written a short play set in an airport based around the character Faust who sells his soul to the Devil. Both shows can be seen on Tuesday 30th and Wednesday 31st March at the Ark-T centre. For more information and booking, click here.
